THE SEBRIGHT DIVORCE CASE RESUMED.

An Heiress Forced Into a Marriage Contract Which She Has Never Complied To.

LONDON, November 13 .- The hearing in the Sebright divorce case was resumed today. Several witnesses testified to M's Sebright's worried and Several witnesses excitable condition during the period immediately following her marriage. Concerning the allegation made on the petitioner's be all that one of the means by which Mr. sebright forced her to marry was a threat that if she refused he would declare that during their secret engalement he had ob-Judge said that no evidence had been adduced to sustain the charge. Mrs. drew the allegation, which Mr. Se-bright declared was a base lie. Lady Scott, the mother of Mrs. Sebright, testified that when she heard of the alleged threat by the respondent inst her daughter's character she had the petitioner ex-mined by a physician, who found that the facts refuted any possible claim that Mr. Sebright might make against the young lady's honor. The case has been adjourned till Tuesday next, when judgment will be rendered.

Officers of the government are forb dden to receive any other than Venezuelan money and foreign gold coins compre-hended in the tariffs of March 7, 1879, and July 6, 1880. The importation of all foreign silver money is prohibited. The day of the issue of the decree the officers of the mint offered to purchase, during the next eighty days, foreign silver coin at the rate of 80 cents for every United States $1. The Consul says the efforts to increase their silver bullion by depreciating the silver coins of the United States and European countries 20 cents on the dollar must fail, and consequently they will be exported. STATE TREASURER QUAY

TO BE CAMERON'S SUCCESSOR IN THE SENATE

From Pennsylvania-All the Leading Politicians of the State Favorable to Him.

Philadelphia Press: Nothing is so much talked of in political circles as the United States Senatorship. It has been kept pretty well in the back ground during the interesting campaign just closed, but the overwhelming Republican majority in the Legis. ing Republican majority in the Legis-lature makes the election of a Republature makes the election of a Republican certain, and as a number of other things are likely to have upon the shape which this matter takes, it comes first into the minds of all. The chief figure in the discussion is naturally State Treasur Quay. Thas he was most likely to be a candidate has been understood for several months, just as has the possible candidacy of several others, including Chairman Cooper, Wharton Barker and exspeaker Grow, has been understood, There are few so close to Col. Quay, however, as to get an open avowal of his ambition. He certainly did not care to have his position discussed care to have his position discussed openly until the result of the election had been a certained. Even Chair man Cooper, as late as Saturday, did not feel positively assured that Col.

port of the party, and there is now no hesitation on the part of his friends to state his position and let it be known that he is a candidate. He has kept this eye on the Legislative nominations and the indictions were found on fare evidence, in all the possible Republican d stricts, and no one who knows Col. Quay's in order shrewdness as a politician will doubt defense. that he understands what he is doing when he becomes a candidate for such preferment

He would not make a dash for anything in politics without a pretty clear idea as to where he is coming out. Chairman Cooper, who knows him as well as anybody, recognized this when he said a day or two sgo that "if Col. Quay decides to be a candidate for United States Senator I shall not run." That took Cooper out of a contest which he believed was won the moment Qray was openly avowed as a candidate. One of Quay's friends said yesterday that he believed he had the support of two-thirds of the Legislatu c. This would mean pretty close to all the Republican members.

Mesntime there has been now and then more or less suggestion about op-position to Quay on the part of Sena-tor Cameron. So far this has been talked without expression or action by Senator Cameron himself to base it on. There is no reason to suppose that he would oppose objection to Quay's election. It is known that Gen. Cameron has expressed a kindly interest in Quay's success. Whatever differences may have existed between Quay and Chris Magee, of P.tteburg, are no longer in the way of the S ate Treasurer's desire to go to the Senate. They have worked in entire harmony for a year, and very early in the summer Magee put himself on record regarding the senatorship by saying that "if Qusy was a candidate he ought to have it, and there should be no opposition to him in the party."

With Cooper withdrawing himself from the race, Cameron not objecting. rom the race, Cameron not objecting, if not actuarly aiding, and Mages cordially sesenting, the track for Quay was well cleared in one quarter at least.

AN EMPLOYE OF THE ADAMS COMPANY.

He Is Under Survelllance and Has an Unaccounted Irjury-Other Crimes and Casualties.

Sr. L-uis, Mo., November 13 - Who the Adems Express robbers are and where they are, are questions which none but the detertives working upon the case can answer, and although they state that b th "Jam Cummings" and "Richard Roe" are known to them and will be arrested when the proper time sha'l arrive, the belief is expressed by many that they are as much in the dark as ever.

The Republican says: La'e last night the handwriting of the "Cummings" letters was carefully compared with that of a former employe of the Adams Express Company, and the two are found to be very like each other. The employe, whose name is not given, was seen at his house this morning, and while he recognized the similarity, stated that he knew nothing whatever of the robbery beyond what he read in the papers. He is under sur-weillance, but could not be arrested on secount of serious injuries which he received in an accident, the nature of which is not stated, some two weeks

The Globe Democrat states that both "Cummings" and "Roe" have been located, and will be arrested as soon as it is discovered where the stolen money is concealed.

An Old Lady Choked to Death and Her Husb. a | Beaten, CLEVELAND, O, November 13.—The house of Ecojamin 8. Wheeler, an extensive property owner on Eagle street, was entered last night by rob-bers, who, after besting and kicking the old man into insensibility, and choking his sged wife to death, proceeded to ransack the premises. Quite a sum of money in a closet escaped the notice of the robbers, and it is not known how much wealth was secured. Patrick Graves, a former tenant, has been arrested for the crime, and Whee'er identifies him. The coroner is investigating the case.

Lilian Quinn, a waiter girl at the hotel, shot Frank E. Lockwood, the ball from a thirty-eight re-volver entering his head above the left eye. She then shot herself through the head and died instantly. Lockwood is still alive but cannot recover. Lockwood was formerly a conductor on the Southern Kansas Railroad, and later the landlord of the Grand Cen-tral Hotel at Medicine Lodge. While in that business Lillian Quinn was in his employ as a waiter gri. He paid her assiduous attentions and she be-came infatuated with him. Since then she has been with him often. She has been in the employ of the Bretton for some time, and has been learing that Lockwood was going to abondon her. During the morning hours she went to Lockwood's room, with the above result.

THE LATE PROF. HENRY

On the Origin and Cause of Earthquakes-Letter Never Before Published.

To the Editors of the Appeal: RIPLEY, TERN., November 12.—I send you a copy of a part of a letter written by the la'e Prof. Joseph Henry, of the Smithsonian Iestitution. It seems quite pertinent to the recent caribquakes. I suppose his remarks were original with him, and I do not think this opinion of his has ever been published. The letter was written in answer to certain theories I had suggested to him, with which he in part agreed, and wrote what is below in counting for earthquikes by the introduction of water to the heated mass, are pertinent. The explanation as generally given is not complete. If, however, we admit that the crust of the earth is in a beneing condition, sirking in some places and rising in others, and that these oscillations are produced by the shifting of the weights on the more yielding surface, we may get a more definite explana-t on of the phenomenon. For exam-ple, certain parts of the Atlantic are constantly becoming more shallow by the transfer of the land into the water. This increased weight will tend to press down the solid crust into the liquid mass below and melt it. From the solid matter thus melted, the water of crystallization included in the rocks will be set free in the form of steam, which, tending to stret hthe outer cross, will drive rise to sudden breaks and jars, and eventually to volcanic eraptions. These would be confined principally to the seashore lines, since along these lines the accumulations of water would be the greatest. * * Very truly yours, JOSEPH HENRY.

E. H. Randle, McKenzie, Tenn. The remainder of the letter is not pertinent. Would be glad to see the above opinion of the great scientist in E H. RANDLE.
